Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 2, "or the like" renders the claim indefinite. The language "or the like" is not acceptable claim language.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Weber 4,383,722. Note the case shown in Figure 11. Note also horizontal shelf plates 2, tilted shelf plates 3, bearing box 7, and pivot pins 5.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Similar shoe display racks are illustrated by Deeley 1,238,275; Parchert 1,401,356; Clark 2,285,491; Archer et al. 3,022,897.
